COVID-19 induced Online Education Facilitation Scholarship

The spread of Covid-19 across the globe has brought unprecedented challenges to all aspects of daily life and the Government of India has adopted unparalleled measures (including in the field of education) in an effort to halt the spread of the virus. As schools and Universities, including Delhi University, have shut down and classes moved online, the concept of education has changed overnight and in these times of crisis, digital learning has emerged as an indispensable resource for education. With 'social distancing' being the new normal and the shift to online education appearing to stay here for the coming academic year, it becomes all the more important that deserving students should not be denied his / her right to education due to lack of adequate means.

Keeping this in mind, the Campus Law Centre Alumni Association, on its 2nd Foundation Day, is delighted to announce its 'COVID-19 induced Online Education Facilitation Scheme' Wherein it will open the applications for the needy students of Campus Law Centre, Faculty of Law, University of Delhi ("CLC"), to provide digital devices to those students who don't have access to adequate digital means.

The scheme will be open for all the current students of CLC. Applicants will be required to submit certain documentary evidences along with their applications for verification purposes. The application link will be uploaded on the website of the CLCAA shortly.
